At left, members of Girl Scout Troop 567 in Cranberry Township parade their Chinese dragon for Girl Scout Thinking Day on Feb. 23. Front to rear are Shannon Brickley, Maggie Madey, Kyra Neiko and Abby Elias. Above, Ash-linn Meeghan tries her hand at hockey at the Canadian booth during Thinking Day. Thinking Day is designed to help the scouts learn more about the world around them. They are encouraged to take part in activities that increase cultural awareness and emphasize positive similarities between
